Hamilton College of TAFE
“Welcome to Hamilton College of TAFE”

I invite you to find out more from our educational staff, counsellor, information officer and co-ordinators to help you make the best selection of a TAFE course to suit your needs.

In the past, some of our students have enjoyed great achievements with personal and skill development.

I hope you are enriched by—“Learning for a Better Life” at Hamilton College of TAFE.

Neville Thomas,
Principal.

91 Parry Street—Block A

The imposing new section of the College provides courses in Catering Studies, Hotel and Club Administration, Home Science and Meat and Allied Trades.

It will meet the needs of the growing catering and hospitality industries of the Hunter Valley, Central and Northern Coast by ensuring that the skills learnt will supplement those on the job.

91 Parry Street

The new building contains the most modern equipment including kitchens, cocktail bar, restaurant, dining room, classroom, food science laboratory, library, student resource and study areas.

People are being attracted to this section of the College from the tourist, catering, nutrition, liquor service and health care industries.

The library provides educational support for students and staff with texts and reference books, additional reading material, light fictional and recreational books.
Parry Street—Block B

Known historically as the brewery building, it provides modern learning facilities in an atmosphere recreated by the architects from an old work area. The warm feeling in this building lends itself to the diverse courses being offered to the Community in Outreach, Participation and Equity Program for Unemployed Youth and Basic Education.

Housekeeping rooms provide training facilities for the hotel and motel industry. The reception area is used for providing modern simulated experience in reception and reservation work.

Individual Learning Centre

These courses are designed to help people improve their Mathematics and/or English Skills by means of programs that are individually tailored to each student’s background and goals.

Educational Program for Unemployed Youth (EPUY)

Is for young people aged 15 to 24 years. It aims broadly to improve both employability and the students’ capacity to find satisfaction in all aspects of their lives.

Basic Education

This section will help a considerable number in the community, both mature adults and school leavers, who are deficient in basic education, literacy and/or numeracy.

Other Centres

Nelson Bay

Address: Government Road, Nelson Bay 2315.

Fashion classes are provided at Nelson Bay. For further information contact Hunter Street Annexe or Teachers at Nelson Bay.

Secretarial Studies classes are also provided during the day. It is expected there will be further developments in course offerings.

Outreach

Outreach provides flexible and innovative programs for members of the community who have found access to formal education difficult. Courses are designed to meet the expressed needs of the student and meet at a time and place convenient to the group.

Participation and Equity Programs (PEP)

This group will help young people make a smooth transition, both before and after they have left school, to work and post school life.
Raymond Terrace
Address: The Uniting Church of Australia, William Street, Raymond Terrace 2324.

Fashion classes are provided at Raymond terrace. For further information contact Hunter Street Annexe.
