NEW THIS MONTH

Ladies swimming circle by Sophie Green

The Carer by Deborah Moggach

CONTENTS:

Audio Books 4
DVDs 4
Fiction 2, 3
General Interest 1
New this Month 1
Holiday Viewing 4
Serial of the Month 4

GENERAL INTEREST — BBQs

Barbecue

Over 50 fabulous recipes to guarantee sizzling barbecue success every time.

641.5784/BARB

Make me barbecue

Nothing beats a barbecue for aroma and flavour.

641.5784/BARB

Great Barbecue food

Women’s Weekly collection of the best of the barbecue world.

641.5784/ GREA
FICTION

For the term of his natural life by Marcus Clark

This story is brutal and at times harrowing. It provides a raw and realistic account of convict life in Colonial Australia. An innocent man who is sentenced to transportation must endure many hardships and yet try to maintain his humanity while faced with the inhumanity of others.

F/CLAR

Runes of the Earth by Stephen Donaldson

Dr Linden Avery thought that she would never see her beloved Covenant again. Lord Foul has stolen her adopted son, but there is more at risk than the life of the boy. Lord Foul has started to unmake the laws of nature and if not stopped he will destroy everything.

S/DONA BK.1

Irish ghosts by John J. Dunne

This book has forty-seven tales of Ghosts from the Middle Ages to the twentieth century. Fearsome black cats and the banshee are just two of the ghosts that have become part of the Irish tradition and atmosphere.

S/DUNN

Ready player one by Ernest Cline

Reality is an ugly place in 2044. Teenager Wade Watts only feels alive when he’s jacked into the virtual utopia known as the OASIS. Wade is studying the puzzles hidden within this digital world’s confines. Wade stumbles upon the first clue and finds himself beset by players willing to kill to win.

S/CLIN

Lady on my left by Catherine Cookson

Alison Read had been orphaned as a two year old. Since then she has lived with and worked with Paul Aglmer, her guardian. Paul was in the antique business for some years and Alison had been quick to learn the trade. When Paul asks her to value the contents of Beacon Ride, it sets off a chain of events that exposes a secret Paul has kept concealed for years.

F/COOK

The red book by Meaghan Delehunt

Francoise, an Australian photographer is in Bhopal where twenty years earlier the Union Carbide leak killed thousands. While there, Francoise compiles a photographic album of two lives. The photographs point to the people they were and who they will become.

F/DELA

Man of steel by Greg Cox

A young boy learns of his extraordinary powers and that he is not of this Earth. When he is old enough he strikes out on his own to discover where he came from and what he was sent here to accomplish. An invading force threatens the annihilation of Earth. The young man must use his powers to try and save everything.

S/COX

Three trails by Abe Dancer

Joe Striker, Will Fawcett and Emer Sparrow have faced danger and trouble together since they met. They head to Arizona but there is no safe haven and with a price on their heads they decide to go to Mexico. When bounty hunters and an Arizona Ranger get to close the three men decide to go their separate ways.

F/DANC

Night time is my time by Mary Higgins-Clark

Jean Sheridan, is headed to her hometown to attend the twenty year reunion of Stonecroft Academy, where she and six other members of her class are to be honoured. However, five women from this class have already died in sudden and mysterious ways. Who will be next?

F/CLAR
SUBJECT OF THE MONTH— Biographies Business/Politics

Steve Jobs by Walter Isaacson
Over two years Walter Isaacson interviewed Steve Jobs more than forty times. Walter also interviewed more than one hundred family member, friends, adversaries, competitors and colleagues to illustrate the intense personality of the creative entrepreneur.

GG/JOBS

Barack Obama: the movement for change by Anthony Painter
Obama’s story is of a visionary leader who doesn’t want to be limited by America’s history. He was the first African-American to win the office of President, a role few thought possible when his campaign was launched.

GG/PAIN

Jennie George by Brad Norington
Jennie George came from the poverty of a refugee camp in war torn Europe to a place near the centre of power in a country half a world away. She chose the tough world of union politics and set out to change that world.

GG/GEOR

Grand illusion: the untold story of Rudy Giuliani and 9/11 by Wayne Barrett
Rudy Giuliani has been praised for his handling of the 9/11 terrorist attack, but in this book a different story emerges. This is a clear-eyed evaluation of his role, before during and after the disaster. Barrett and Collins provide the first authoritative view of the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks.

GG/GIUL

Bob Hawke: a portrait by Robert Pullan
Hawke is examined not only as a man, but also as a leader. A product of his background education and experience. Hawke represents a paradox – the leader who is known for his drinking and weeping that is part of national folklore and a man who could rip into opponents with relish.

GG/HAWK

Losing my virginity: the autobiography by Richard Branson
Richard Branson’s amazing memoir includes the effect on the Virgin Group of 11 September, his views on the war in Iraq and various enterprises he is involved in with his Virgin business including Virgin Galactic poised for a new era of commercial space travel.

GG/BRAN

Making of Julia Gillard by Jacqueline Kent
Julia Gillard was the first woman to be the deputy prime minister. She is admired on both sides of politics as well as by the public. Julia’s story includes her childhood in Adelaide, her time as an activist and the battles she faced to get into parliament.

GG/GILL

J.F.K.: a hidden life by Robin Cross
A celebration of the life of J.F.K. A man who changed the perception of the world and American’s perception of themselves. He was one of the most charismatic figures of the twentieth century and this book has been lavishly supplied with unseen photographs from the JFK library and archives.

GG/CROS

What are the odds?: the Bill Waterhouse story by Bill Waterhouse
The Waterhouse name is synonymous with the Australian horse racing and bookmaking industry. He learnt the bookmaking from his father. Book making became his passion and in the 60’s he became Australia’s biggest and stayed there for twenty years.

GG/WATE

Steve Jobs
Over two years Walter Isaacson interviewed Steve Jobs more than forty times. Walter also interviewed more than one hundred family member, friends, adversaries, competitors and colleagues to illustrate the intense personality of the creative entrepreneur.

GG/JOBS

Barack Obama: the movement for change
Obama’s story is of a visionary leader who doesn’t want to be limited by America’s history. He was the first African-American to win the office of President, a role few thought possible when his campaign was launched.

GG/PAIN

Jennie George
Jennie George came from the poverty of a refugee camp in war torn Europe to a place near the centre of power in a country half a world away. She chose the tough world of union politics and set out to change that world.

GG/GEOR

Grand illusion: the untold story of Rudy Giuliani and 9/11
Rudy Giuliani has been praised for his handling of the 9/11 terrorist attack, but in this book a different story emerges. This is a clear-eyed evaluation of his role, before during and after the disaster. Barrett and Collins provide the first authoritative view of the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks.

GG/GIUL

Bob Hawke: a portrait
Hawke is examined not only as a man, but also as a leader. A product of his background education and experience. Hawke represents a paradox – the leader who is known for his drinking and weeping that is part of national folklore and a man who could rip into opponents with relish.

GG/HAWK

Losing my virginity: the autobiography
Richard Branson’s amazing memoir includes the effect on the Virgin Group of 11 September, his views on the war in Iraq and various enterprises he is involved in with his Virgin business including Virgin Galactic poised for a new era of commercial space travel.

GG/BRAN

Making of Julia Gillard
Julia Gillard was the first woman to be the deputy prime minister. She is admired on both sides of politics as well as by the public. Julia’s story includes her childhood in Adelaide, her time as an activist and the battles she faced to get into parliament.

GG/GILL

SUBJECT OF THE MONTH— Biographies Business/Politics

Steve Jobs by Walter Isaacson
Over two years Walter Isaacson interviewed Steve Jobs more than forty times. Walter also interviewed more than one hundred family member, friends, adversaries, competitors and colleagues to illustrate the intense personality of the creative entrepreneur.

GG/JOBS

Barack Obama: the movement for change by Anthony Painter
Obama’s story is of a visionary leader who doesn’t want to be limited by America’s history. He was the first African-American to win the office of President, a role few thought possible when his campaign was launched.

GG/PAIN

Jennie George by Brad Norington
Jennie George came from the poverty of a refugee camp in war torn Europe to a place near the centre of power in a country half a world away. She chose the tough world of union politics and set out to change that world.

GG/GEOR

Grand illusion: the untold story of Rudy Giuliani and 9/11 by Wayne Barrett
Rudy Giuliani has been praised for his handling of the 9/11 terrorist attack, but in this book a different story emerges. This is a clear-eyed evaluation of his role, before during and after the disaster. Barrett and Collins provide the first authoritative view of the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks.

GG/GIUL

Bob Hawke: a portrait by Robert Pullan
Hawke is examined not only as a man, but also as a leader. A product of his background education and experience. Hawke represents a paradox – the leader who is known for his drinking and weeping that is part of national folklore and a man who could rip into opponents with relish.

GG/HAWK

Losing my virginity: the autobiography by Richard Branson
Richard Branson’s amazing memoir includes the effect on the Virgin Group of 11 September, his views on the war in Iraq and various enterprises he is involved in with his Virgin business including Virgin Galactic poised for a new era of commercial space travel.

GG/BRAN

Making of Julia Gillard by Jacqueline Kent
Julia Gillard was the first woman to be the deputy prime minister. She is admired on both sides of politics as well as by the public. Julia’s story includes her childhood in Adelaide, her time as an activist and the battles she faced to get into parliament.

GG/GILL
New DVDs in the Library

Relax over the holidays with these movies, new in the Library.

- Deck the Halls
- Jingle all the way
- The Grinch
- Storm Boy
- Love Simon
- Fantastic Beasts: The Crimes of Grindelwald
- Mission impossible: Rogue Nation
- A kid like Jake
- Justice League
- Goodbye Christopher Robin
- Absolutely Fabulous: The Movie
- Space Cowboys
- The Great Wall
- Volcano
- The Dark Tower