The book of dust: volume 1: La Belle Sauvage by Philip Pullman

Malcolm Polstead’s Oxford life has been one of routine, listening in to the news and gossip in his father’s inn, the Trout and playing with his daemon Asta in their canoe, La Belle Sauvage he is content. However, during the winter of unceasing rain, Malcolm hears news of intrigue. The world around Malcolm and Asta is, it seems, set to become increasingly far from routine as they begin an adventure where they will have to brave many dangers.
