Vacation Hours
Hamilton Library Staff will be conduction our annual stocktake in the first non-teaching week. Please have all items back to the library by Friday 29th November.

Borrowing will recommence on Monday 9th December. Call in & collect some light reading or viewing for the vacation period.

Students may borrow over the holidays provided that they are returning in 2014 to the course in which they are currently enrolled. They will need to collect a form from the Library and have it verified by their teacher.

2014 Requirements

Please let us know if there is anything you would like for the 2014 teaching year. Ordering will take place in January 2014.

Eat Your Books

Too many cookbooks? Don’t know where to find that one recipe? Eat Your Books is a search engine for the indexes of cookbooks, recipe magazines etc. It is not an online cookbook as such but it will index your cookbooks, provide a shopping list, notes and reviews. It will also index & link to your favourite online recipes. You can join for free & search their index but would need to pay a membership fee to go any further than this. Find them at http://www.eatyourbooks.com/

Xmas Wishes

Dianne, Debbie & Naomi would like to thank all the staff here for their help & support this year & wish you all a very Merry Xmas!

Alumni Borrowing
